

In a Sea of Green

Are you looking for a unique golfing experience? Hunting for a new and different course to play? Or are you just searching for a way to relax on the links for a few hours between business commitments?

In any case, Hancock County's fine golfing facilities can provide a casual, yet challenging, opportunity to get away from it all in scenic surroundings and a friendly atmosphere.

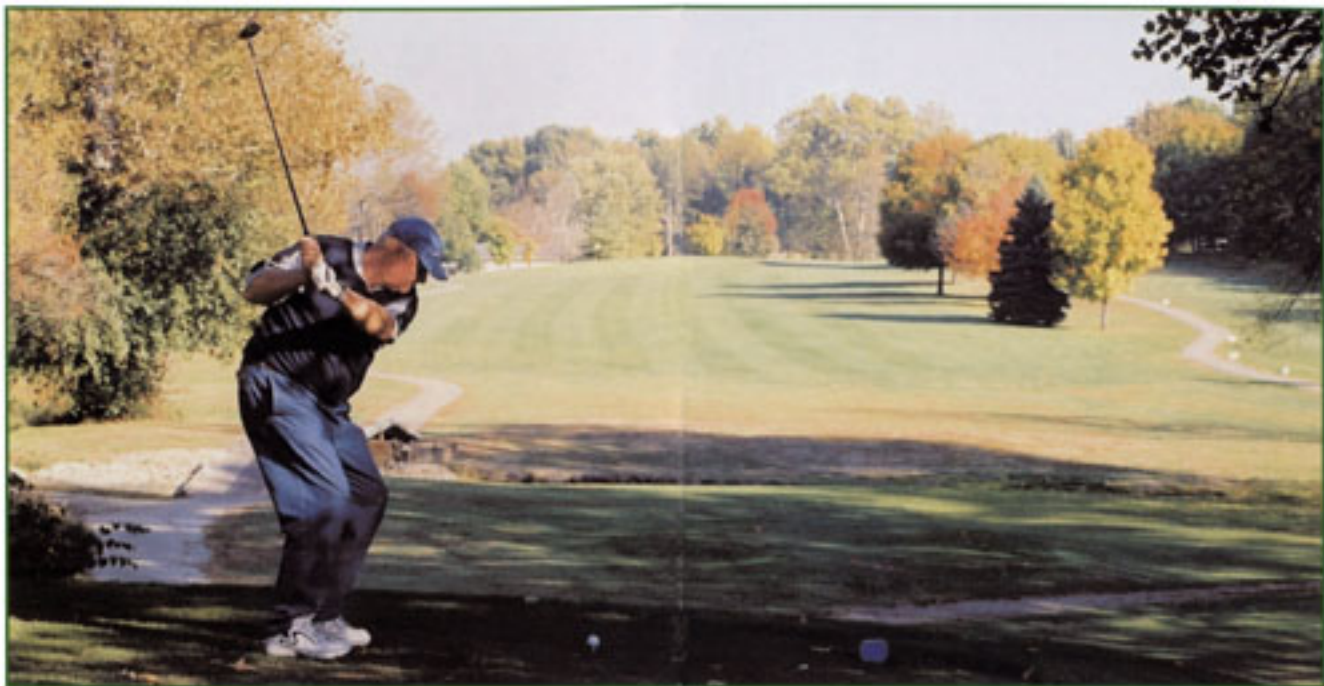

Hancock County offers a variety of courses, from Par 3 and Executive layouts to full-sized 18-hole courses to test your golfing skill.

And they're all open to the public.

Whether you choose Arrowhead with its tight, picturesque layout; Greenfield Country Club which has hosted numerous state tour events; The Links which features undulating terrain and ample water hazards and sand traps; or any of the other locations, you'll find a diversity of experiences — all well-maintained and ready for play.

So don't forget your clubs whenever you visit with us here at the Heart of the Crossroads — Hancock County.

It's tee time.
